Job Title: ASD Behavior Specialist

Department: Special Education

Education Level and Certification: Master's degree in Special Education or related field. Appropriate certification or licensure to work directly with students with ASD (BCBA Preferred). Three years or more of professional and/or public school work with children and youth with ASD and/or behavior disorders. No history of child abuse or negligence.

Reports To: ASD State Coordinator and ESU 13 Director of Special Education

Terms of Employment: 185-190 Days

General Responsibilities: The ASD Behavior Specialist will provide consultative services to school districts to support students on the autism spectrum who have severe behavior needs. Consultative services include conducting a functional behavior assessment, development and implementation of specific teaching procedures and effective programming, as well as data collection and analysis for target students. Additionally, provision of training and coaching to team members so that all programming can be implemented with a high degree of fidelity will be required. The ASD Behavior Specialist will collaborate with the Metro Region Coordinator, and the ASD Network State Coordinator on referrals and training needs.

Essential Responsibilities:

1. Provide leadership and consultation to school districts to implement diverse, empirically supported programming for students with ASD and severe behavior needs
2. Provide training, coaching and follow up support on a wide variety of interventions for students with ASD
3. Collaborate with ASD Network State and Regional Coordinators on referral, ASD training needs and statewide ASD Network activities
4. Conduct functional behavior assessments, collect/analyze data and develop appropriate intervention plans for students with ASD and/or severe behavior needs
5. Facilitate collaboration and meetings between educational personnel, community providers and family members
6. Recommend supports and best practices in interventions for students with ASD
7. Demonstrate professional conduct, maintain confidentiality and pursue professional growth.
8. Understand and comply with the ESU #13 Board of Education Personnel Policies and Employee Handbook.
9. Maintain dependable and reliable attendance.
10. Support health related activities and activities of daily living, as appropriate

11. Perform other duties as assigned
